Real Lancashire

The Witch's Recipe Book

Five spellbinding recipes
with Real Lancashire Eccles Cakes

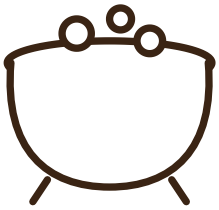

Real Lancashire Eccles Cakes®
CONTAINING PURE BUTTER

Ex Libris

This book belongs to the Witches of Lancashire.

Borrow it kindly.
Return it with crumbs.

Found in a dusty larder,
on a dark October night.

Within these pages

Spellbinding Recipes

The Cauldron Pudding II

The Witch's Supper III

Moonlight Mess IV

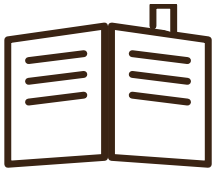

The Spellbound Scoop V

Bonfire Night Warmers VI

Words of Wisdom VII

Colour the Spell VIII

Every spell begins with a Real Lancashire Eccles Cake.

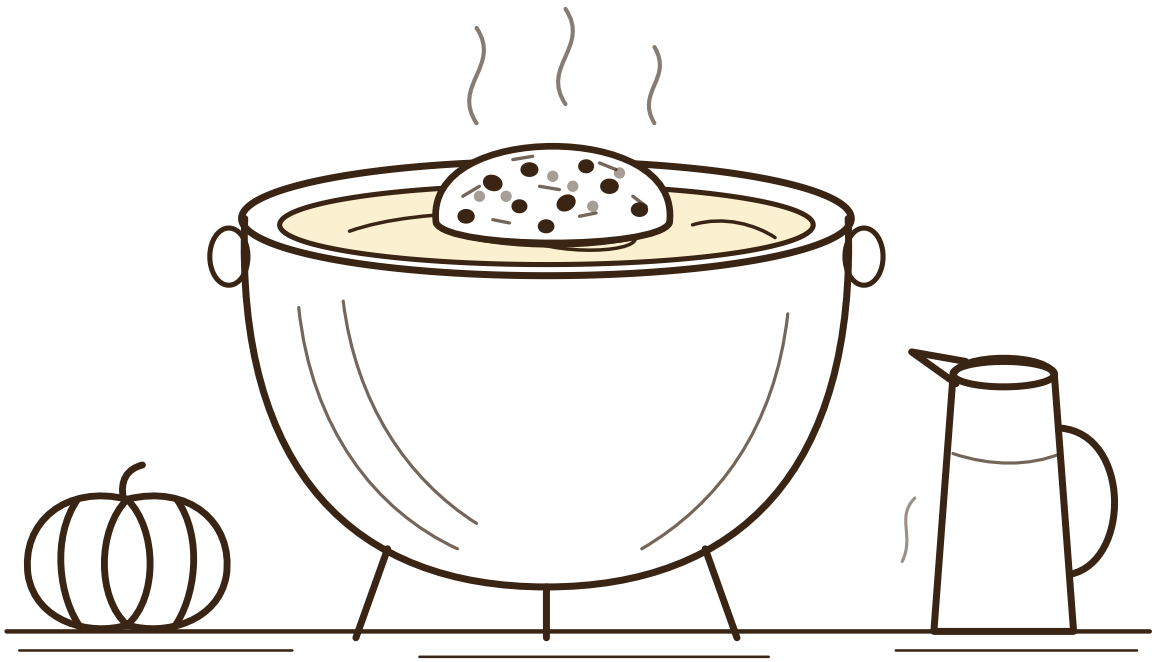

Recipe the First

The Cauldron Pudding

Bubble, bubble, custard's trouble.
Warm the cake and pour it double.

You will need

- 1 Real Lancashire Eccles Cake
- A jug of hot custard
- A deep bowl, your cauldron

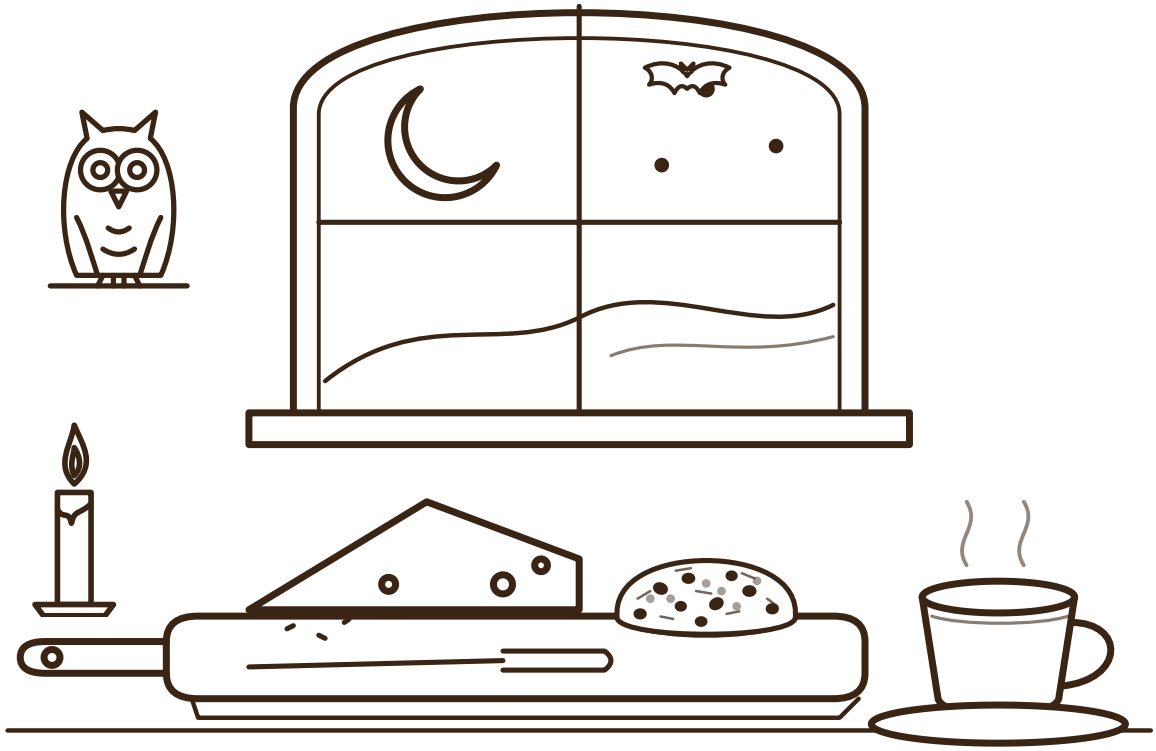

The method

1. Warm the cake in the oven for a few minutes.
2. Place it in your bowl and pour over plenty of hot custard.
3. Eat at once, while it is still steaming.

Recipe the Second

The Witch's Supper

Something sweet, something sharp.
Lancashire folk have always known.

You will need

- 1 Real Lancashire Eccles Cake
- A wedge of crumbly Lancashire cheese
- A cup of strong tea

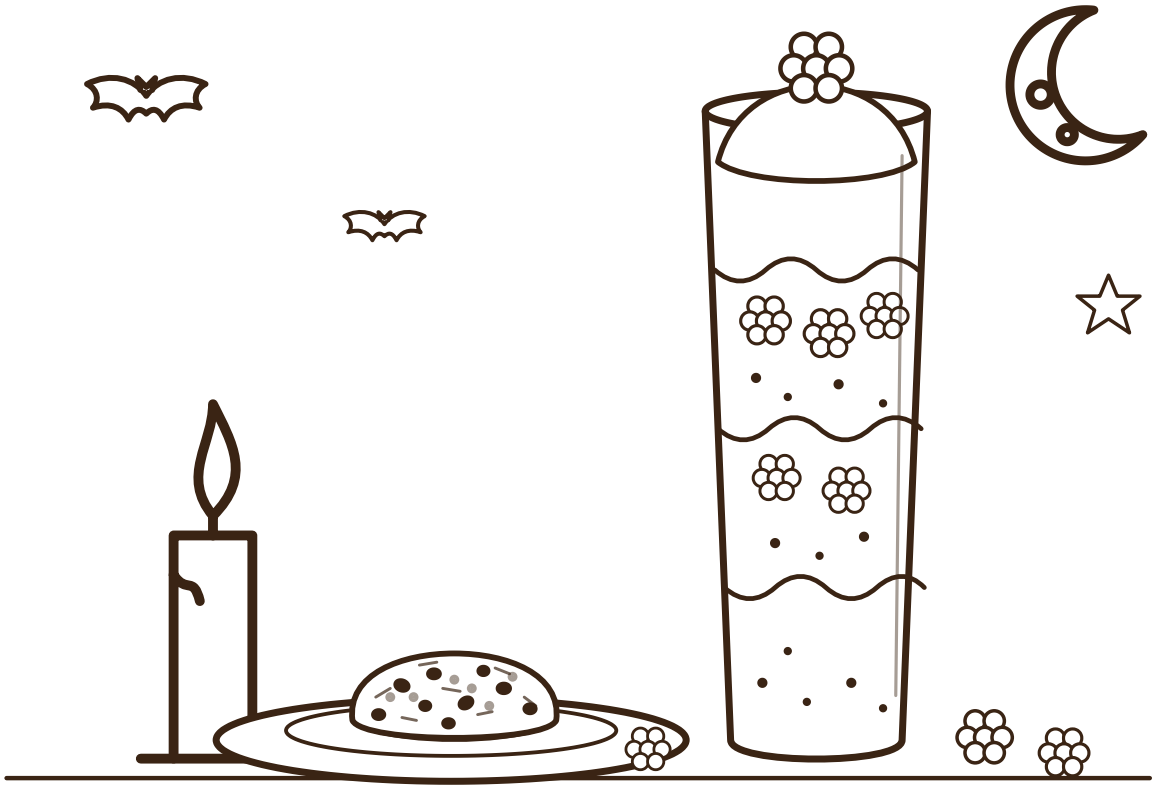

The method

1. Cut yourself a generous slice of cheese.
2. Take a bite of cake, then a bite of cheese.
3. Repeat until the plate is empty and the moon is high.

Recipe the Third

Moonlight Mess

Crumble and swirl
beneath a silver moon.

You will need

- 1 Eccles Cake, crumbled
- Whipped cream
- A handful of blackberries
- A tall glass

The method

1. Layer crumbs, cream and berries in the glass.
2. Repeat until it is full to the brim.
3. Crown it with one last blackberry: the witch's eye.

Recipe the Fourth

The Spellbound Scoop

Hot and cold,
together bewitched.

You will need

- 1 Eccles Cake, warmed
- A scoop of vanilla ice cream
- A pinch of cinnamon

The method

1. Warm the cake in the oven.
2. Top it with ice cream while it is still hot.
3. Dust with cinnamon and watch it melt like magic.

lancashireecclescakes.co.uk

Recipe the Fifth

Bonfire Night Warmers

Remember, remember,
a warm cake in November.

You will need

- Eccles Cakes, one per guest
- A flask of hot tea
- Woolly gloves

The method

1. Warm the cakes and wrap them in a tea towel.
2. Carry them out to the bonfire.
3. Hand them round as the fireworks begin.

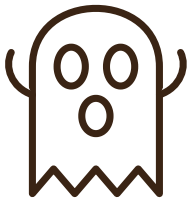

A Witch's Words of Wisdom

Always warm thy cake in the oven, never the microwave. The spirits are most particular about this.

Warm or cold, an Eccles Cake is a treat either way, by candlelight or by daylight.

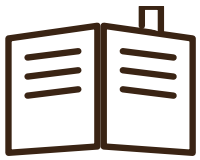

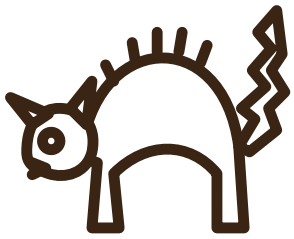

Share with friends. Cakes eaten alone attract ghosts, and ghosts never bring their own.

Keep this book far from goblins. They never return what they borrow.

By the Fireside

Pull up the tartan, pour the tea,
an Eccles Cake for you and me.

Coloured by _____ · Show us on Facebook & Instagram

The Witching Window

A full moon rises, the branches creak.
Jack keeps the cakes for those who seek.

Coloured by _____ · Show us on Facebook & Instagram

Colour the Spell · The Third

The Cat Keeps Watch

A black cat guards the baker's board.
One crumb for her is the safest reward.

Coloured by _____ · Show us on Facebook & Instagram

Jack's Supper

A grinning pumpkin, a steaming cup,
split the cake and eat it up.

Coloured by _____ · Show us on Facebook & Instagram

Candlelight & Wool

Wrap up warm as the candle glows,
the night is long, the kettle knows.

Coloured by _____ · Show us on Facebook & Instagram

Here the ink runs dry...

...for now.

Every spell in this book begins with a Real Lancashire Eccles Cake, baked with pure butter and plenty of fruit.

Real Lancashire Eccles Cakes®

CONTAINING PURE BUTTER

LANCASHIREECCLESCAKES.CO.UK

Happy Halloween from Lancashire.

Scan to visit us